

JOHN PAUL THE GREAT ACADEMY

THE GUARDIAN

OMNIA IN EXCELLENTIA

FEBRUARY 2016

FROM THE HEADMASTER...

Over the past several weeks, many, many prospective families have come to visit John Paul the Great Academy. Having heard good things around Lafayette, they now seek to experience first hand the charisms of our school and the vision that makes our education unique.

For thousands of years, the approach of classical education, which is modeled at JPG, has been the primary tool for forming both courageous, effective leaders and humble, holy citizens, both of this world and the next. What indeed is the heart of classical education? Is it the study of the collected wisdom of Western civilization? Is it the learning of Latin, and the study of the trivium - grammar, logic and rhetoric? Is it the focus on Socratic seminar discussions and the study of great books? Is it the memorization of poetry and the development of public speaking skills?

It is all of these things, of course, but it may help to think of classical education not only in terms of what it is, but rather in terms of what it is not. Dr. Brian Philips of the Circe Institute said at a recent conference, "There is nothing wrong with job training - it is important and is meant to be done in apprenticeships and trade schools, but it is not, I repeat, not education." A key problem with modern education, which the Common Core movement has only made worse, is the effort to limit and restrict education to mere job training. No doubt, the skills of critical thinking, persuasive writing and eloquent speaking will serve our graduates well in the workplace, but this is not the heart and soul of education, at least not of classical education.

Education is, by contrast, the formation of the soul, the training (directing) of the will, the ordering of the passions, the development of discipline and courage, and the cultivation of the imagination! It is the enriching and widening of the soul... All of which orders the human person to seek the true, good and beautiful in the ONE who is Truth, Goodness, and Beauty Himself.

This is the heart of the classical, Catholic education that we seek to cultivate here at JPG. Please join me in sharing this vision with prospective families and others who may be interested in supporting the unique mission of John Paul the Great Academy.

In the peace of Christ,

Peter Fletcher
Headmaster & President

SPEECH & DEBATE

February marks the last month of regular season tournaments for the JPG Speech & Debate students. Our competition schedule is as follows:

- Kaplan High School: February 5 & 6
- Cecilia High School: February 13
- Dutchtown High School: February 20
- Acadiana High School: February 26 & 27

Any parents who want more information about these competitions can contact Mrs. Mahan at dmahan@jpgacademy.org. Please keep our Guardian Speech & Debate students in your prayers as they end the regular season, and look forward to State and National qualifier competitions soon!

SPRING PLAY PERFORMANCES

We hope that you can join us for the Drama Club's spring play, Shakespeare's Love's Labour's Lost! There will be evening shows at 6:30pm on Thursday, February 25 and Friday, February 26 in the library. There will also be a school matinee on Friday (time TBD).

Parents and other guests are encouraged to attend one of the evening shows due to limited space at the matinee. Tickets for guests at the school show and for all attendees of evening shows are as follows: $5 for adults and $2 for senior citizens and children ages 5 and up. Note that there will be no cost for faculty, staff, or students attending the school matinee.

MEET...

Taylor McCaulley is a native of Ville Platte, Louisiana. She has lived in Lafayette for four years and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Technical Writing from UL Lafayette. She is currently pursuing her Masters of Theology at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, LA. Taylor is so grateful to be part of the close-knit JPG community. She is passionate about sharing the mission of this unique little school.

VERITAS

The JPG faculty and staff is thoroughly enjoying the newly renovated faculty lounge!
 Thank you to our PTO who made this possible!

PSAT SCORES ARE IN!

PSAT results for 8th-11th grade students have arrived! Students will be given a copy of their score sheet to bring home for their families. Anyone who wants more information about the PSAT, or how to read their child's test score can contact Mrs. Mahan at dmahan@jpgacademy.org.

SCIENCE DAY – HELP NEEDED!

Science Day at JPG is a time for our school community to enjoy the two-fold gift God has given us through nature: a beautiful universe and a beautiful mind capable of discovering its creator through His creation. This year, we would like to invite parents to be a bigger part of Science Day. We are in need of volunteers to help coordinate and organize ahead of time and assist on the day. If you have ideas, suggestions, or want to contribute in any way, please email Mr. Albarado at kalbarado@jpgacademy.org.
